

I hope that the FCC will not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This act has made my home life much better because unwanted telephone sales calls have been decreased dramatically. Please do not do anything that will increase the amount of unwanted sales calls I receive at my home. Thank you - Kevin Flook